

The Ohio State University Student Right to Know Graduation Rates

The following information regarding our institution's graduation rates is provided in compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. The rates reflect the graduation status of students who enrolled during the stated year and for whom 150% of the normal time-to-completion has elapsed.

- During the autumn term of 2011, 7,074 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Columbus campus. After 6 years, as of August 6, 2017, 82.5% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.
- During the autumn term of 2011, 449 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Lima campus. After 6 years, as of August 6, 2017, 37.6% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.
- During the autumn term of 2011, 490 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Mansfield campus. After 6 years, as of August 6, 2017, 43.5% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.
- During the autumn term of 2011, 382 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Marion campus. After 6 years, as of August 6, 2017, 41.6% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.
- During the autumn term of 2011, 1,225 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Newark campus. After 6 years, as of August 6, 2017, 37.0% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.
- During the autumn term of 2014, 317 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Wooster campus. After 3 years, as of August 6, 2017, 40.7% of these students had received associate degrees.