The Ohio State University
Student Right to Know Graduation Rates

The following information regarding our institution's graduation rates is provided in compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. The rates reflect the graduation status of students who enrolled during the stated year and for whom 150% of the normal time-to-completion has elapsed.

- During the autumn term of 2009, 6,727 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Columbus campus. After 6 years, as of August 9, 2015, 83.1% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2009, 463 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Lima campus. After 6 years, as of August 9, 2015, 31.7% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2009, 480 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Mansfield campus. After 6 years, as of August 9, 2015, 42.5% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2009, 580 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Marion campus. After 6 years, as of August 9, 2015, 43.3% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2009, 1073 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Newark campus. After 6 years, as of August 9, 2015, 32.7% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2012, 304 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Wooster campus. After 3 years, as of August 9, 2015, 26.0% of these students had received associate degrees.