The Ohio State University
Student Right to Know Graduation Rates

The following information regarding our institution's graduation rates is provided in compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. The rates reflect the graduation status of students who enrolled during the stated year and for whom 150% of the normal time-to-completion has elapsed.

- During the autumn term of 2008, 6,153 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Columbus campus. After 6 years, as of August 10, 2014, 83.5% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2008, 490 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Lima campus. After 6 years, as of August 10, 2014, 33.3% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2008, 490 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Mansfield campus. After 6 years, as of August 10, 2014, 41.6% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2008, 529 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Marion campus. After 6 years, as of August 10, 2014, 42.7% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2008, 1067 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Newark campus. After 6 years, as of August 10, 2014, 39.2% of these students had received baccalaureate degrees.

- During the autumn term of 2011, 278 first-time, full-time, certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students entered the Wooster campus. After 3 years, as of August 10, 2014, 32.0% of these students had received associate degrees.